The Shaker Tavern, built in 1869 as a business venture for the South Union Shakers, housed a hotel for the “people of the world.” For more than 30 years, the Shaker Tavern maintained a thriving business, catering to the Victorian railroad travelers who stopped at South Union. Today, the Shaker Tavern is open once again to the public for overnight accommodations. A dedication to Shaker goodness combines with the “worldly” Victorian atmosphere to provide a unique bed & breakfast experience.
